President On Way Home

Foreign Policy Talk to be Made Tuesday Night in San Francisco

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

HONOLULU, Oct. 16—(AP)—President Truman was flying back to the mainland today to report on his meeting with General MacArthur on Wake Island as world capitals still puzzled over the significance of that Pacific rendezvous.

The President's plane "Independence" left Hickam Field, Honolulu, for San Francisco at 6:38 (10:28 a.m. CST), and the "Dewdrop," carrying his top advisers, departed five minutes later. The flight to San Francisco requires about nine hours.

Aides said the President is devoting extraordinary time and care to the major foreign policy address he will make in San Francisco at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday (11:30 p.m. EST).

While he will preface his talk with a reference to his conference with General MacArthur on the barren Far Pacific island as a move to help the Far East find peace, there has been no indication that the President will elaborate greatly on the Wake island statement.

The statement, signed by the President and initialed by the United Nations supreme commander, followed their less than three hours talk.

Actually, the most important phase of it was the hour Mr. Truman and General MacArthur spent alone in the living room of a guest house before they went into conference with military and diplomatic advisers.

No Hint of Decisions

The statement gave no hint of any far reaching new decisions such as many had speculated might grow out of the spectacular 14,000 mile round trip flight.

In fact, one top White House policy adviser said Mr. Truman primarily "wanted to talk to General MacArthur face to face" about Far East problems and added: "After all, he had never seen the general and thought he should."

Mr. Truman will complete the final draft of his Tuesday talk at the Fairmont hotel in San Francisco where he will spend Monday night.

He is leaving immediately after his talk so he can be back in the White House Wednesday morning. "Peace and Stability"

Mr. Truman was reported anxious to build up strong American support for the spending necessary to keep defense appropriations moving after the Korean emergency ends and to rehabilitate and reconstruct Korea as an example to all the Far East that the United States and its associates want only peace and stability for the world.

That thought will underline not only his San Francisco talk but the one he will make to the United Nations General Assembly in New York on Oct. 24.

Whatever others may speculate about the Wake island meeting, the President and his advisers exude satisfaction over its results.

And while General MacArthur exuded less outward happiness as they shook hands upon meeting and departing, presidential advisers said the two world figures "got along famously."

Little Boy Anxious To Get Cat Back

If you see a stray yellow cat around your place, one with a bushy tail and bushy fur, not a Persian, but just a cat, will you call Jimmy Rice, who lives at 624 West Fifth street, and brought the cat with him in a car from Arcadia, Calif.

Jimmy, who gives his age as nine and three-quarters, is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Briggs Rice, the former a dentist. They have moved to Sedalia from California, but ten months ago, lived in Kansas City.

The cat's name is "Silk" states Jimmy, but it never really goes by that name. It just "comes to people who know it."

The cat, not familiar with its new surroundings, has evidently wandered off.

Dr. and Mrs. Rice are not exactly strangers to this part of the country because Dr. Rice is a native of Pittsfield and Mrs. Rice a native of Versailles.

Truman And MacArthur Meet

Deeper Inquiry For Cases in Federal Court

One Has to do With Rifling Letters in Mail

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 16—(AP)—Federal district judge Albert L. Reeves ordered a pre-sentence investigation of Clarence F. Meyer, Jr., 25, after the former Booneville, Mo., mail carrier admitted in court today he took money from 20 or 30 letters.

Results of the investigation on the army veteran's background will be presented in district court in Kansas City later.

Meyer asked probation because it was his first offense. He said he would repay the money he took from letters.

Judge Reeves warned Meyer his was a serious offense for which the courts "rarely grant probation." Meyer will be free on bond during the investigation.

Judge Reeves also granted a further investigation in the case of three Booneville Negro women charged with using the mails to obtain merchandise with no intention of paying for it. All three admitted the offense.

They are Mrs. Stella Mae Jones, 51, her daughter Mrs. Czarovna Quint, 29, and her daughter-in-law Mrs. Mary Rosetta Jones, 23. Thomas G. Wilson, Sr., attorney for Rosetta Jones asked leniency for the trio. He said they were "rather voracious in buying merchandise" but had never been in trouble before.

"I think they've learned their lesson," he told Judge Reeves.

They admitted they sent letters to various Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago department stores, asking that merchandise be sent them on credit. Their purchases from four Kansas City stores totaled more than $700, it was shown.

Cow in the Pasture Cause of Plane Crash

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 16—(AP)—Two Kansas City men were injured in an airplane accident near Lake Norfolk on the Missouri-Arkansas line.

They are John W. McEvoy and Dellon Lewis, both of Kansas City, Mo.

McEvoy suffered second and third degree burns. He is at the O'Reilly Veterans hospital here. Lewis, who suffered lesser burns, was treated at the hospital and released. McEvoy's condition was described as good.

The men were taking off in a pasture in a small private plane. A cow got in the path of the craft and it flipped over and burned.

Problems For Peace And Security in Korea Complex

By Elton C. Fay
AP Military Affairs Reporter

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—(AP)—Some unprecedented and complex situations are involved in the "steps necessary to bring peace and security" to Korea which President Truman says he and Gen. Douglas MacArthur discussed at their Wake Island meeting.

For the first time, a segment of the communist empire is being removed from the Soviet grasp. The procedure followed in North Korea may become a pattern should the fringes of the Russian empire start crumbling elsewhere.

MacArthur is going to have some problems he hasn't faced before. He can't use his experience in ending World War II as a guide for his steps in Korea.

When victory came in the Pacific, there was an organized Japanese government to sign the surrender and continue on with internal, domestic administration. In the closing days of the war, the allies encouraged the Japanese to retain the government of Emperor Hirohito. This facilitated the surrender and the eventual reconstruction of the Japanese government.

But the aggressive and ruthless

Orville Kronk Fatally Hurt In Car Accident

Auto Crashed Into Church at Mansfield, Mo.

Orville E. (Joe) Kronk, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kronk, 119½ West Main street, was fatally injured and Isaac Hoggatt, 25, of Leota, Mo., is in a critical condition as a result of an automobile accident at Mansfield, Mo., early Sunday morning. The car in which they were riding crashed into a Catholic church in Mansfield.

According to information given by the State Patrol, Hoggatt was the driver of the car when the mishap occurred. It was reported they were driving west on Highway 60, which highway drops down a hill into Mansfield. At the bottom of the hill is a sharp curve. The car, it was said, skidded on the highway, went through the church yard and crashed into the church.

Condition Is Critical
The two injured men were rushed to Springfield where Kronk died about 9:30 o'clock in the morning, and the condition of Hoggatt still remains critical. Kronk had a severe head injury over the right eye and on the right temple, broken right leg and bruises on his body. Hoggatt is suffering head injuries.

Orville Kronk

It was reported the car was demolished and the church was so badly damaged that services could not be held in the building.

Members of the Kronk family said they had learned their son and Hoggatt were going to West Plains where Kronk was to be married. The name of the prospective bride was not learned.

Both men were employed in Kansas City by the Chromo Fixture Manufacturing Co.

Mansfield, where the accident happened, is about forty miles east of Springfield.

The body of Kronk was brought to Sedalia to the Ewing funeral home.

Lived Here Five Years

Orville Edward Kronk, 18, was born at Villa Ridge, near St. Louis, June 6, 1932, the son of Richard and Icy Giboney Kronk. His boyhood was spent in St. Louis. When he was eleven years old the family moved to Texas, where they lived until five years ago when they came to Sedalia to make their home.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kronk, 119½ West Main street, Sedalia; four brothers, Richard Kronk, Jr., Kansas City, Floyd Kronk, Roy Kronk and Truman Kronk all of Sedalia; four sisters, Mrs. Marie Richardson, Kansas City, Shirley Kronk, Joy Kronk and Charlotte Kronk all of the home; his grandfather, George Giboney, Fulton, Mo.

Funeral services will be held at the Ewing funeral home at 2:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. H. L. Alley, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, will officiate.

Interment will be in the Crown Hill cemetery.

Navy And Marines Casualties To 2,958

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—(AP)—Navy and Marine Corps casualties in Korea totaled 2,958 through Oct. 12, the Navy reported today.

Rear Admiral Joel T. Boone, medical inspector general, told reporters that 496 were killed in action, 75 died of wounds, 2,337 were wounded and 50 are missing.

Admiral Boone said these included 91 casualties among Navy hospital corpsmen, of whom 20 were killed, 70 wounded and one missing.

He said that non-battle casualties, including disease, among navy and marine personnel averaged 21 per 1,000. Admiral Boone said this compares with a rate of 29 per 1,000 for personnel stationed in the United States.

The Admiral, who recently returned from an inspection trip through the far eastern war theater, said he expected some increase in the disease rate among all servicemen in Korea when winter sets in.

Teen-Town Board To Meet Tonight

There will be a meeting of the Senior Teen Town board tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Teen Town.

No Speeches Before Election

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 16—(AP)—Gov. Forrest Smith said today he does not plan any campaign speeches before the general election next month.

Smith supported State Senator Emory W. Allison of Rolla for the Democratic senatorial nomination in the primary. Allison was defeated by Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., of St. Louis for the right to oppose Republican Senator Forrest C. Donnell in the general election.

Smith has not taken any part in the Hennings campaign.

Negotiate as To Steel Wages

Meet by Steel Leaders And Philip Murray of the CIO

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 16—(AP)—Industry leader United States Steel Corporation and the CIO United Steelworkers opened negotiations today on the union's demand for a wage increase.

Neither side commented as sessions got under way.

President Philip Murray of both the CIO and the USW headed the union's 37-man bargaining team. Vice President John A. Stephens led about the same number of representatives of "big steel's" six steel-producing subsidiaries.

They are American Steel and Wire Company, Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, Columbia Steel Company, Geneva Steel Company, National Tube Company and Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company.

Murray and Stephens shook hands and chatted pleasantly for a few minutes before the bargaining session started in a downtown hotel conference room.

U. S. Steel is the traditional bellwether of the industry in wage talks. If it grants a pay hike, other steel firms — both basic producers and the firms that turn the steel into finished products—probably will follow suit.

The amount of any U. S. Steel wage hike would be reflected in the prices of automobiles, refrigerators, hairpins and everything else made of steel.

Some Offer Expected
Little doubt has been expressed that U. S. Steel will make some form of wage increase offer. The amount of that expected offer remains to be answered.

Murray himself hasn't said how much he will seek for the steelworkers who now average $1.70 an hour. Some sources have placed the union's demand at about 25 cents an hour.

The man Murray will face across the conference table is John A. Stephens, vice president of U. S. Steel in charge of industrial relations.

In agreeing to meet with Murray, head of both the CIO and the steelworkers, Stephens made it plain he would discuss only a possible wage boost for U. S. Steel's production and maintenance employees. He ruled out any discussion of insurance and pension demands, both of which the union is expected to present.

The conference was requested by Murray. The steelworkers' current two-year contract with U. S. Steel expires on Nov. 1. The union would be free to strike Dec. 31, if no agreement had been reached.

Murray asked that the wage discussion date be advanced to October 9, claiming it was in the national interest to get an early start to cope with higher living costs.

Thirty-five steel companies have agreed to the earlier wage talks. Some preliminary conferences were held last week.

Indian Summer
Blazes Forth

Sunday the temperature climbed to 89 degrees, almost the first summer weather we have had all year. Today it reached 85 degrees.

It seems that one can never tell about the weather any more, they don't know by the weather whether it is spring, summer, fall or winter but they can always be sure of one season—that little extra season in the autumn, called Indian Summer.

Indian summer is a guarantee of about three weeks of perfect weather in the real summer, this glorious season is showing off—it is giving a few days of real summer weather just for good measure.

Killed When Auto Crashed Into Abutment

HOUSTON, Mo., Oct. 16—(AP)—James W. Stewart, 28, of the Hartshorn community was killed and three other persons were hurt Saturday night when their car crashed into a bridge abutment on Highway 17, near here.

The injured were Lloyd Kirkham, 30, also of Hartshorn; George A. Kirkham, 22, of Summerville; and Curtis Ray of St. Louis.

War In Korea Will End In A Few Weeks Is Belief In Tokyo

Robert E. Wilson Back Into Service

Robert E. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wilson, 918 South Kentucky avenue, has been called back to service in the army and reported to Fort Lewis, Wash. His wife and son, Grant, will remain in Sedalia for awhile with his parents and will later go to Julesburg, Colo., to stay with her parents, John A. Grant part of the time.

Eisenhower Says Future In University

Endorsed by Gov. Dewey For The Presidency

NEW YORK, Oct. 16—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today he was grateful for being proposed as a presidential candidate in 1952 but felt his duty was to remain as president of Columbia university.

His statement was guarded. It did not appear to constitute a flat withdrawal of his name as a possible candidate.

Eisenhower's statement came after Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said yesterday he favored the supreme allied commander in World War II as the Republicans' 1952 presidential candidate.

Eisenhower, now president of Columbia university, said that his future lay in his job at the university.

The general said he was "grateful" and "complimented" by Dewey's endorsement, but added: "As for myself, my convictions as to the place and methods through which I can best contribute something to the cause of freedom have been often expressed. They have not changed."

Task At University
"Here at Columbia university, I have a task that would excite the pride and challenge the qualifications and strength of any man. I still believe that it offers to such an individual as myself rich opportunities for serving."

Repeatedly in the past, Eisenhower has spurned presidential honors in his behalf. But Dewey's outright bid for him to run put a top GOP leader behind him for the office.

Dewey, twice a candidate for president himself, said he would not run for the presidency again, even if he were drafted.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen, twice an unsuccessful aspirant for the Republican presidential nominee, today hailed Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's support of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1942 as "real statesmanship."

Stassen now is president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Dewey, twice elected governor of New York and now seeking his third term, said yesterday he would use his "influence" to get Eisenhower nominated as the GOP candidate in 1952.

Dewey was the Republican nominee in 1944 and 1948, beating out Stassen both times.

Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, said in a statement: "Governor Dewey showed real statesmanship in his forthright declaration. I am pleased he has taken this step."

"I've wired him my commendation."

"I have long ago expressed and continue to have a very high regard for General Eisenhower."

His Only Comment
Stassen declined further comment. He parried a question about whether he would seek the nomination himself in 1952 by saying: "My statement is my only comment."

He also refused to say whether he, like Dewey, would work for Eisenhower's nomination.

"My statement is my only comment," he said again.

Actually the statement straddles the political fence. It can be interpreted two ways:

1. That Stassen is "pleased" because the New York governor took himself out of the presidential nomination race.

2. That Stassen, is not for (Please turn to page 4 column 2)

Armored Race by Two Spearheads On to What May Be Major Battle

TOKYO, Oct. 16—(AP)—Two Allied spearheads smashed today toward the flatland approaches of Pyongyang in an armored race for the Red Korean capital.

The last major battle of the war may be close at hand. There was a growing belief in Tokyo military circles that the war would end in a few weeks. But a long mopping-up period may follow.

Racing for the Red capital were the U. S. First Cavalry division—the first into Manila in World War II—and the South Korean First division.

The Americans battled through stubborn resistance Monday in a 16-mile thrust into Sohung, 42 air miles and 60 highway miles southeast of Pyongyang. On a parallel secondary road 20 miles north of Sohung, the South Koreans, paced by American tanks, reached Suan, 40 air miles southeast of the Communist capital.

Both forces were thrusting through North Korea's mountain backbone which shields Pyongyang on the south and east. But it was a torn and dented shield. Field reports indicated the Red remnants were crumbling rapidly. Resistance was fierce in spots, but sporadic.

AP Correspondent Jack MacBeth, with the South Koreans, said they "broke into a run" for Pyongyang after charging into Suan.

The U. S. Cavalry troopers ran into their toughest fight two miles north of Nanchonjom, about 10 miles southeast of Sinmak and 12 miles north of captured Kumchong.

Over Winding Road
Although the South Korean column was closest to Pyongyang, it was fighting along a winding mountain road. The First Cavalry was banging up the longer main rail and highway route. Its next main objective is Sariwon, 27 road miles west of Sinmak and 35 miles south of Pyongyang.

Two other columns were driving toward Pyongyang from more distant points. The U. S. 24th division hit from the south and the Republic of Korea (ROK) Third division from the east. The ROKs moved along a road twisting across the peninsula from Wonsan on the east coast.

It was the first time the 24th division had been reported in action since it swept up "heartbreak highway" from the old Pusan beachhead to recapture Taejon, in South Korea.

Units of the 24th division, flown to Korea from placid occupation duty in Japan, were the first Americans hurled against the Red juggernaut after the June 25 invasion of the South Korean Republic. The 24th fought a series of bitter withdrawals.

24th Into Yonan
The 24th division entered Yonan, just south of parallel 38 and 50 miles northwest of Seoul, after a brief fight. Either the Reds were confused or sought the safety of imprisonment because they fled south toward certain encirclement.

Elsewhere, the only escape for the North Koreans appeared to be north of Pyongyang, on the west coast, and north of Hungnam, on the east coast. The latter is so heavily bombed road to Manchuria and Soviet Siberia.

Girl Scouts Share In The Community Chest Agencies

The Girl Scout Program in Sedalia has grown from the small group of 12 Girl Scouts in 1922 to the present all time high of 751 girls and adults. This growth has been made possible through the cooperation the organization has received through the citizens of Sedalia.

There are 145 volunteer leaders, co-leaders, council members and program consultants to help direct the activities of the 52 Troops in Sedalia. The leaders plan and bring the program to the Troops by conducting weekly meetings throughout the school year. The girls are taught handicraft, homemaking, dramatics, nature study, sports and games. The girls take part in community service by assisting with community programs, serving as nursery attendants at P. T. A. meetings and making contributions to hospitals and nurseries.

Waste In Our Group
If you take the SC out of Scouting it will spell outing which makes up the larger portion of the Scout Program. The Sedalia Girl Scouts maintain their own Camp Sac-a-jawee, where an extensive camp program is carried out. During the summer of 1950 there were

Unsafe Lifeboat Gear on Seven Troopships Used By U. S. Invite Tragedy

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON—Just as the ill-fated hospital ship Benevolence sank recently without lowering a lifeboat, the same thing could happen to seven troopships which are still equipped with cumbersome lifeboat gear, almost useless in an emergency.

These troopships are plying the Atlantic and Pacific toasts, crammed with G.I.'s going to Korea and Germany, or with dependents coming home. In case of an emergency, they may not be as fortunate as the Benevolence passengers who went down within easy range of San Francisco rescue boats.

These seven troopships carry their lifeboats cradled in Navy triple-bank davits which don't even meet the minimum safety standards of the Coast Guard. It takes ship's power to swing the davits out with any degree of speed. Yet ship's power usually fails in any emergency serious enough to require life boats. Though substitute handcranks are attached to the davits, the mechanism is too slow and cumbersome to swing the life boats in position within the 10-minute Coast Guard time limit.

The troopships still using triple-bank davits are the Generals W. M. Black, Le Roy Eltinge, W. G. Hann, Stuart Heintzelman, W. C. Langlitt, M. B. Stewart and S. D. Sturgis. All were inherited from the Army but are now operated by the Unified Military Sea Transport Service. As military vessels, these ships do not come under Coast Guard jurisdiction. However, the ships' officers have complained repeatedly about the unsafe lifeboat gear. So far, their warnings have gone ignored.

Navy Explains

A mate who sailed on the SS General Sturgis told this column: "Emergencies likely to be encountered on ships at sea, such as fires, strandings, foundering and collisions, would not only make lifeboats necessary but, on the ship, would make them almost useless."

A Navy spokesman explained that the Military Sea Transport Service has been so hard-pressed for troopships, since the Korean war began, that there hasn't been time to improve the ships inherited from the Army. The same spokesman denied, however, that a power failure had prevented the Benevolence's lifeboats from being lowered. He insisted the hospital ship was not equipped with triple-bank davits which require ship's power, but with simple gravity davits.

Yet Capt. Barton Bacon Jr., commander of the Benevolence, told a Coast Guard inquiry that lack of power had made it impossible to get lifeboats over the side. The frantic crew was able to cut loose only one lifeboat, which immediately capsized.

With illegal, Russian-made mines floating loose in Far Eastern waters, the Navy may be faced with a needless tragedy unless it installs modern, safe lifeboat equipment in these seven unsafe troopships.

Whistle-Stop Truman??

Before the President decided to visit General MacArthur, Democratic politicians, had been begging him on bended knees to make a fist-swinging, whistle-stop tour during the last 10 days of the campaign. Mr. Truman, however, has remained lukewarm.

The inside reason for his coolness is not the official explanation at the White House—that the President is pressed with urgent problems. It is his own fear that he cannot repeat his 1948 victory in an off year.

Presidential secretaries Matt Connelly and John Steelman threw the most cold water on the speech tour, because: "If the boss goes out and does his best and we still lose seats in Congress, he won't be the champ any more. That would hurt in 1952."

Democratic Chairman Bill Boyle and acting campaign director, Sen. Clinton Anderson, on the other hand recommend that Mr. Truman take the last 10 days before the election to stir up excitement and get voters to the polls. Their reason: Confidential and alarming reports that reveal the Democrats will lose key seats unless they get out a big vote.

The surveys show the Democrats must get 55 to 75 per cent of the registered voters at the polls in order to carry such strategic states as New York, Ohio, Illinois, Missouri and California. A smaller vote would lop off Democrat incumbents, and a big turnout would increase the administration strength in Congress.

In most areas, Democrat scouts report apathy among the voters. Headline charges of communism, responsibility for Korea, and appeasement of Russia have not stirred up any excitement in the grass roots. One correspondent wrote, "I wish the Republican war cry of 'communism, Korea and confusion' was clicking better, so the Democrats would get out and work."

NOTE—The Truman-MacArthur meeting was considered a compromise between the two groups of presidential advisers. The trip keeps the President in the war news, and also reminds voters that he had something to do with the big decision of Korea.

Truman Rewards GOP

A quiet move is under way by the AFL, CIO, and railway brotherhoods to beard Mr. Truman in the White House and bluntly ask him why labor has been ignored in favor of Republican big business executives in making recent mobilization appointments.

One labor official complained to Don Dawson, President Truman's personnel man, "there is only one labor man in all the new defense setup—Eli Oliver on Symington's resources board."

William Green and Phil Murray have also griped to sympathetic congressmen. The appointments that particularly rankle them are:

William Henry Harrison, former executive of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., as director of the new National Production Authority.

Alan Valentine, ex-president of the University of Rochester and corporation director, as economic stabilization director. Valentine was executive director of the Democrats for Willkie in 1940.

Towering and popular Cy Ching, chief of the Federal Conciliation Service, to be chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board. Ching is a Republican, former vice president of U.S. Rubber.

Capital Chaff

The United Nations Commission has reported that the South Koreans were just as guilty of war atrocities as the North Koreans—until the U.S. Army found out and put its foot down.

... Republic of Korea President Syngman Rhee is so busy making political capital out of the U.N. military victory that he is becoming a nuisance to the Army, is embarrassing the State department. ... The new ambassador to England, Walter S. Gifford, to whom President Truman gave the juiciest plum in the diplomatic service, contributed to the 1944 and 1948 presidential campaigns—but not to Truman. He was a heavy backer of Tom Dewey.

Brilliant Landing at Inchon Paved Way for Early Victory

By Bruce Blossat

In mid-September the Allied forces in Korea were pinned down in a small bridgehead in the Pusan corner. Two weeks later they were in command of nearly all South Korea, and major North Korean resistance had crumbled.

Not even the most optimistic Americans probably imagined that such a miraculous change in our Korean fortunes was possible.

The key to this lightning-like reversal, of course, was the brilliantly-executed assault upon the Inchon-Seoul area. But it's doubtful that the planners of this maneuver foresaw so speedy a collapse of North Korean armies.

They wanted Seoul because it controls the supply lines to the south, and thus could be used to choke off the flow of men and materials to North Koreans pressing against the Pusan bridgehead. Yet when they won the capital city, resistance by the enemy not only weakened in the south; it all but disappeared.

This was the priceless intangible dividend of the Inchon-Seoul landings. The Allies had expected to have to fight their way doggedly up the peninsula, slowly retaking the cities they had yielded so reluctantly in the painful early days of retreat.

The first clue that the story would be different came on Friday, Sept. 22. It was announced that troops of the Inchon-Seoul force had swept into Suwon 20 miles below Seoul, and at the same time that Pusan bridgehead forces had sprinted northward 20-odd miles from their old perimeter. It was plain the North Koreans were breaking up.

In the days that followed Allied forces raced on to a junction near Suwon. The list of cities recaptured read like a gazetteer of Korea—Hamchang, Andong, Chongju, Chinju, Kumchon, Chochiwon, Chonan. American news accounts hardly took notice of the regaining of Taejon, scene of bitter fighting less than two months ago.

Now South Korea is free again and the only question is how far we shall go into North Korea. President Truman and our military leaders in the Pentagon are fully justified in proclaiming victory without awaiting further developments. Our basic task, to clear the enemy out of the territory he invaded, is to all intents and purposes accomplished.

General MacArthur, UN commander in Korea, wholly merits the lavish praise poured on him by the President and the Pentagon for his bold and tactically superb leadership. His performance in the Inchon-Seoul area was a military classic; it produced a military miracle.

But no amount of leadership could have done the job without the remarkable cooperation of all the fighting forces involved. The Navy's handling of the Inchon landings was without parallel. The spearheading Marines carved a new chapter in their brave history. The Army carried out its mission beautifully.

Behind all this was the courage and skill of the battered forces who held the Pusan bridgehead against repeated enemy attack week after week.

Thus what gave promise at the start of being one of the grimmest passages in U.S. military history has been transformed almost overnight into one of the most illustrious. Every American hails this achievement. Every American hopes that Russia's Communist leaders take it wisely as a token of what they may expect wherever and whenever they seek to narrow further the area of world freedom.

GOD'S WATCH-CARE—OVER OUR SPIRIT

The gift-shop lady of whom we have written runs "The Doctors' Exchange" of the town. Sick people call up an invalid to find out where to get a doctor! When I asked her what was the central thought of the year she replied, "God's watch-care." Think of an invalid's choosing "God's watch-care" as her central thanksgiving! If God cared, then why did He not heal her?

We have said that God heals in eight great ways: through the surgeon, the physician, climate, mental suggestion, scientific nutrition, deliverance from underlying fears, resentments, self-centeredness and guilts, the direct operation of the Spirit of God, and through the resurrection. Whatever He does not cure through the first seven ways He will cure through the eighth—the resurrection. To some He entrusts the ministry of suffering until the Day of the Final Cure—the resurrection—in the meantime giving them power, not merely to hear the suffering, but to use it. The "watch-care" of which God's noblewoman spoke was "watch-care" over her spirit, that her spirit should remain unspoiled and sound. Healed at the heart, she could say, "Let the world come on!" Sound at heart, she was ready for anything. God's watch-care may be particularly exercised in producing inner attitudes, for in our inner attitudes the battle of life is lost or won.

A lady arose in one of our meetings and said that the doctors had given her six months to live—cancer of the lungs. "At first," she said, "I was bitter and rebellious—how could I leave my children and my husband? Then I said to myself, 'If I have only six months to live, am I going to leave my children a heritage of defeat and frustration? Is that the last thing they will remember about me? Or will they have a heritage of calm poise and victory?' I decided I would leave them a Christian heritage of victory. Every since I surrendered my rebellion and bitterness there has been calm poise, and even joy. The fact is, I've gained ten pounds!" God's watch-care was over her spirit—that was intact. Nothing else really mattered.

O God, watch over my spirit and keep me sound there. For if I sag in spirit, all life sags with it. If my spirit holds up, everything holds up with it. Then help me to live within with abundance, so that it will not matter much what happens on the outside. Into Thy hands I commend my spirit this day—keep it sound and sweet and gay, in spite of! Amen.

The Doctor Says—

Death Toll From Sleeping Pills Increases at an Alarming Rate

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

The sleeping pill problem is serious. The number of deaths in the United States from this cause was 454 in 1943, 520 in 1944, and 795 in 1945. In New York City alone 197 died from overdoses of sleeping pills in 1945.

This is a shocking situation and, although many states and cities have adopted laws prohibiting the purchase of sleeping pills except with a doctor's prescription, the situation is still not good.

Most of the sleeping pill drugs consist of various combinations of a chemical substance known as barbituric acid, though they are sold under a large variety of trade names. Although they have valuable uses in medicine, their misuse is so uncommon that they should not be taken at all unless absolutely necessary.

Sleeping pill deaths are caused by acute poisoning. This in turn is the result of too many pills at one time, sometimes purposely and sometimes accidentally. Prompt treatment is important and would probably save many lives.

Some people are especially sensitive to the barbiturate drugs. Such persons can get reactions from only small quantities. It is also a matter of concern that some people become addicted to barbiturates; that is, they develop a habit and liking which is difficult to throw off and, of course, may produce harm if it is not.

Most people who develop the barbiturate habit do so because they have been using the pills for sleeplessness. The habit usually takes several months or even years to become established. A few people have difficulty in stopping after using the sleeping tablets for less than a month.

The Habit Grows

Those who are in the habit of taking sleeping drugs find that they have to take larger and larger quantities and that even then the results become less and less successful. Besides developing a harmful habit they may be chronically poisoned. One woman, for example, who had taken barbiturates for several months became mentally incompetent, lost control of her elimination, lost weight, and had to be fed with a spoon.

Sleeping drugs should not be taken like water. They act on the nervous system and on other parts of the body. They should be avoided, except when there are definite reasons for using them. Even then the use of sleeping pills should not be continued without the advice of a physician who is

Veteran Housewife Offers Plan For Simplifying Routine Tasks

A housewife writes: "I share your somewhat skeptical attitude toward the efficiency experts who are forever pointing out to the housewife how inefficiently she runs her life.

"Yet I wish some older, more experienced housewife had helped me work out some practical kind of housekeeping plan when I was first married.

"It took me five years of working too hard and accomplishing too little before I was able to figure out a weekly work plan that isn't too hard for me and gives me a real feeling of accomplishment at the end of each day.

"Here's the system I finally figured out—in case any of the young wives who read your column are interested:

"Monday morning I sit down with a pencil and a sheet of paper—which I mark off in five days, Monday through Friday.

"On another sheet of paper I make a list—usually it turns out to be a long one—of all the jobs, other than such routine chores as cooking meals, washing dishes, making beds, etc., that must be done that week.

ing up the wide, shining walnut stairs. If Agatha heard Miss Maggie, she'd come too and there would be a scene. Miss Maggie didn't want people feeling sorry for her. Leana paused in the hall outside her employer's door, took a deep breath and went in casually.

"You wanted me, Miss Maggie?" "Would I have called if I hadn't, young woman?" was the tart reply.

"Of course not," Leana gave her a placating smile. "But it's almost time for me to go to town. Do you still want me to meet Peter?"

"Certainly I want you to meet him! You think I want Jasper running to him with all sorts of lies—or Sonda?"

Leana busied herself about the room. Poor Miss Maggie, with only a few months to live. . . Well, she thought, I'll be nice to her—kind to her. The others were so obviously—just waiting.

Miss Maggie's anger died away as suddenly as it had sprung to life. She smiled and reached out a scrawny hand.

"You don't hate me, child. I can be sure about you."

"Of course you can, Miss Maggie," Leana never called her "aunt" although the old woman was her grandfather's sister; the feeling of kinship just wasn't there.

"Then run along and meet Peter. And don't forget to find out—if you can—what brought him home." She laughed, her voice cracking with bitterness. "Certainly it isn't love for his old aunt or the decent desire to see her—just once more!"

The 4:43 was late. Leana prowled around the platform, talking with the few villagers whom she knew, watching the expressmen maneuver their wagon into place beside the track, anything to keep from thinking how she would ask Peter Thorne, "What are your intentions, old boy?" Golly! What an assignment Miss Maggie had given her this time! It was worse

WASHINGTON —(NEA)— Q. Does the government help pay hospital bills for soldier's wives? A. When Army medical facilities are available they can be used by the dependents of servicemen.

Q. Before I was honorably discharged I went out and had a tootin' good time. An MP got me and made a report on me. Before the report was acted on I was out. If I am recalled will that report be held against me? A. The best expert opinion in the Pentagon is that it probably wouldn't be.

Q. If the Korean fighting develops into a real World War III, will they give those men who have seen some combat duty stateside duty for a while? A. There is no plan for rotating Korean vets.

Q. Do Naval Reserve medical and dental officers who receive orders back to active duty receive the $100 per month bonus if they have not requested active duty? A. Naval Reserve medical or dental officers will be eligible for the $100 a month regardless of whether or not they volunteered, if otherwise qualified.

Q. Can you tell me the maximum age for a 2nd Lt. in a combat infantry regiment? A. Age limit is 30.

Q. Can a pensioned veteran with a 10 per cent disability be drafted? A. No.

Q. I was discharged from the Army as a chief warrant officer. However, I am a master sergeant in the reserves. If called back to active duty will I get the grade I had when I was discharged? A. No. You will go in with your reserve grade.

'Philadelphia Story' Next

Casting is complete for "The Philadelphia Story," Philip Barry's comedy to be presented on December 5 and 6 by the Community Playhouse, according to an announcement by the director, Mrs. Ted Gardner. One of the leading roles will be played by a newcomer to the group, Harold Barrick. Two other members, Miss Anita Self and Mrs. Florence Long, are making their first major appearances. Other members recently assigned to roles are Jim Green, John Erickson, Donald Frank, Alice Carson and Mrs. Frank F. Evans. Rehearsals are being held several times each week.

Playhouse members will meet Wednesday night at the V.F.W. Hall, and Scott Vebber, president, asks that all unsold season tickets and receipts thereof be turned in at that time to the secretary, Miss Betty Ellsworth.

"Our second play takes a large cast," Mr. Vebber said, "and two settings are required. We will therefore need a large number of people to do backstage work on the setting, properties, make-up and costumes. Anyone interested in doing work of this kind is welcome to attend the meeting."

"Philadelphia Story" ran for a year on Broadway before going on the road, and drama critics were unanimous in their agreement that the play presented Philip Barry at the very top of his form, the New York Times remarking that it was "a pleasant comedy about pleasant, believable people, with dialogue that is both smart and polished."

Awards in exhibits in Garden Club No. 8 Friday afternoon were: Mrs. R. S. Doll, first; Mrs. Al Schreiner, second; Mrs. James Ryan, third and Mrs. G. W. Walk, honorable mention.

Awards for the most points during last year went to Mrs. George Walk, first; Mrs. James Ryan, second and Mrs. Al Schreiner, third.

Banquet by Job's Daughters

Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 15, Sedalia, held their annual Father-Daughter banquet Wednesday, October 11, at the Masonic Temple, Seventh street and Osage avenue.

The Job's Daughters and their fathers marched into the dining room, which was appropriately decorated with fall flowers. Rev. Warren Neal gave the invocation. A welcome was given to the fathers by the Honored Queen, Carolyn Morgan.

The following program was presented: Song, "If I Could Tell You" by Connie Overfelt and Rev. Neal. Ruth Ann Zulauf presented a gift to the associate guardian, George Curnutt, after which the song, "Always" was sung by Kay Brown, Jo Ann Pasley and Sally Jo Dowdy. Frances Rudd then led the group singing.

Following the banquet the ceremony of initiation was held in the Blue Room.

Girls initiated as new members were: Jane Knight, Judy Hammond, Patricia Smith, Jeanie Seegar, Ann Seegar and Elaine Bohon.

The banquet was served by the Pettis Chapter No. 279, Order of the Eastern Star.

World Community Day November 3

World Community Day, sponsored by the United Council of Church Women, will be observed in Sedalia on November 3, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church, Fourth street and Vermont avenue.

The International committee of the Sedalia Council is planning a program around the theme, "Love Thy Neighbor," dealing particularly with displaced persons. The committee is composed of Mrs. Michael Wolfel, Mrs. Louis Isgur, Mrs. J. E. Hurley and Mrs. T. R. Snow.

This year's project calls for the providing of knitted garments for older refugees. Sweaters, socks, scarfs or mittens either new or used garments in good condition will be brought to the observance by church representatives for dedication. Where no garments are available, donations of cash for the purchase of such garments are acceptable.

World Community Day in the middle of the twentieth century should be for church women a light in the darkness of uncertainty and fear that lowers about us. It is a day which tells others that the way of peace can be found.

North Korean military forces, pressed upon the Far Eastern commander the necessity for plans to shift some of the military power built up for the Korean war to the United States and to the menacing situation in Europe.

This must have called for some of Mr. Truman's most persuasive efforts. No general ever believes he has enough men. This isn't necessarily "empire building." Generals just like to play safe.

On top of that natural and traditional feeling of all commanders is MacArthur's own deep conviction about the danger in the Far East. He is an exponent of a "strong line" of defense against communist aggression in the orient.

The United States now has what seems to be the equivalent of about eight divisions in Korea — the First Cavalry, 24th, 25th, 3rd and 7th army divisions, First marine division, a regimental combat team of the 11th airborne division and elements of various other organizations.

These are combat units. Eight divisions at full strength would account for about 136,000 men. This would not include other military personnel used for service and support.

Because of the enemy's expressed determination to keep on fighting, there is no reason to believe that the question of redeployment of American forces from Korea.

Price Support On Corn Crop

Rate of $1.46
A Bushel P.M.A.
Announces

The Pettis county corn price support rate for the 1950 crop is $1.46 per bushel, announces Jas. A. Harvey, chairman of the Pettis county Production and Marketing Administration committee.

Price support rates for the 1950 corn crop ranging from $1.36 to $1.64 a bushel in commercial corn counties and from $1.02 to $1.30 a bushel in the non-commercial corn counties have been announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Last year acreage allotments were not in effect for corn, and a support rate averaging 90 per cent of the parity price was mandatory for all producing areas, making the national average support rate $1.40 a bushel. This year, with acreage allotments in effect in the "commercial" but not in the "non-commercial" area, support at the 90-percent-of-parity level is available only to the "commercial" area. This rate averages $1.47 a bushel as compared with $1.40 a year ago for all states. For the "non-commercial" area, where acreage allotments are not in effect, the law limits support to only 75 per cent of the 90-percent-of-parity level.

Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan announced on December 30 that there would be no marketing quotas in effect on the 1950 corn crop but that compliance with acreage allotments would be a condition for price support at 90 per cent of the October 1, 1950, parity price for corn.

Under the 1950 program, loans and purchase agreements will be available to farmers from time of harvest through May 31, 1951, and will mature on July 31, 1951. Detailed information concerning the corn loan may be obtained from the PMA office, 209½ South Ohio, Sedalia.

Teams Solicit New Members

Many Have Been Added Balanced Farm Program

Recently the membership drive for the 1951 Balanced Farming Association was started with former and present members working as teams. A goal of 40 new and 40 old members was set.

To date a total of 22 members have been signed. These include 10 new ones and 12 that have been in previously. Team members who have reported new Association members include Elmer Curtis and John Youngkamp from north of Smithton; Tom Ream and Edgar Durely, Hughesville; Stevens McClure, Route 3 Sedalia; Marvin Goodwin and Ralph Harrington of east of Sedalia and W. J. Ficken of Smithton.

The new members signed include Charles Wisdom, Green Ridge; Harold G. Brown, Ionia; E. A. Schnakenberg and Melvin Viebrook, Spring Fork; Leonard McClure, Sedalia, Route 4, Milo Homan, Smithton; George Knox, Beaman; J. M. Burke, Beaman; Charles Singer, Hughesville; O. O. Ginn, Knob Noster and L. J. Harned, Sedalia. The first years cost is $50.00.

Folks who were in the Association one or more of the last 3 years during which time dues were paid, can join the Association at a $35.00 annual rate. Folks coming in to date include R. M. Over 54 Miles Of Terraces

Thirty-seven
Pettis Countians
Now Have Them

Thirty-seven Pettis county farmers participating in the 1950 Agricultural Conservation Program have constructed 54 and one-half miles of standard terraces on their farms this year, announces the Pettis county PMA committee of which Jas. A. Harvey is chairman.

They also stated that many other farmers are constructing terraces which have not yet been checked and approved by the PMA program or the county committee. Some of these 37 farmers and the extent of terracing accomplished on their farms with assistance of the ACP credit are: Jas. G. Forsythe—9,200 feet; C. Emmett Turner—10,120 feet; James L. Fowler—31,600 feet; Logan Siegel—2080 feet; D. M. Overstreet—7710 feet; Fred L. Hoehns—1890 feet; Nolen Gieschen—5190 feet; Gussie Whittall—4100 feet; Ernest McClure—2210 feet; Leonard Frederick—9480 feet; Thos. J. Ream—8970 feet; Chas. Feeback—1930 feet; L. O. Eichkoff—2180 feet; John W. Lewis—3980 feet; C. S. Arnold—7840 feet; E. R. Kerfoot—8220 feet; P. D. Fidler—3600 feet.

Technical assistance in planning the terraces on those farms co-operating in the Balanced Farming Program was given by their agent, Merle Vaughn. Assistance in planning and laying out terraces on all other farms has been given by the PMA county committee and programman and the county Extension agent.

The familiar football expression, "Hold that line" might well be the slogan of these Pettis county farmers who farmed on the contour with their terraces instead of up and down the slope. These farmers organized a defense that held. There was no "wide open" line with furrows running up and down the slope.

As a result of these terraces being constructed on these farms, instead of tons of topsoil moving down the field, the soil remains in place to help produce crops year after year. Our nation is that much more secure in its ability to produce food and fiber.

Charles Feeback—Dan Robinson, Sedalia.

The new Association year started on October 1, 1950. As members sign up they are asked to include which one or more phases of Balanced Farming they want to work on first so Associate County Agent Berle Vaughn, who works with this group, can make plans to help members with their problems.

for an increasing population. Our defense program is that much stronger.

The Agricultural Conservation Program has been a great factor in promoting terracing and contour farming in Pettis county and terracing will again be one of the practices stressed in 1951 with the same assistance rate of $2.00 per 100 feet constructed.

Striped College Has Election

Miss Mina Kroger is the new president of the Striped college 4-H club, which had an election of officers October 11. Other officers elected were: Loren Broadus, vice president; Miss Lillian Bahner, secretary and treasurer; David Moriarty, reporter; Wayne Green, parliamentarian; Misses Betty Leiter and Eileen Bahner, song leaders; Misses Betty Lou Chancellor and Barbara Leiter, game leaders; and Mrs. Lester Patrick, community leader.

The meeting was opened with the 4-H pledge, led by Pat Moriarty. Roll call was answered by 34 members, naming a first aid practice.

Following the election of officers, the club members planned for a Halloween party, which is to begin with a hay ride, followed by a weiner roast. It is going to be sponsored by the cooking class.

A committee was appointed to form plans for the event. It is composed of: Misses Betty Leiter, Lillian Bahner, Rosella Hunter and Betty Chancellor.

The gift committee appointed consists of Misses Mina Kroger, Eileen Bahner and Betty Litz.

After the business meeting the members rehearsed for skits to be put on at the local achievement day, which is to be held Friday.

After adjournment a social hour followed with refreshments being served by Mrs. Park Green, Mrs. Ellis Garrett and Mrs. T. M. Moriarty.

Type School By Dairymen

An interested crowd of approximately 85 dairymen, 4-H'ers, Veterans Vocational Agriculture members and instructors, and other interested persons attend the type school held at the Paul and Ernest Selkens Farms at Smithton on October 11th. This event was sponsored by the Central District Holstein Breeders Association.

M. J. Regan, head of the Dairy Extension Department, began the program with a discussion of type classification according to parts. "The production of a cow and her period of usefulness in the herd is very closely correlated to her type," related Regan.

Following the classification of two cows by the group, the judging began. Classes consisting of Aged Cows, 4 years old, 3 years olds, 2 year olds and the selection of the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion of all four classes were very interesting.

The group seemed to feel that this afternoon spent looking at cattle in their every day work clothes under the supervision of an experienced dairy cattle judge "Pat" Regan was well worthwhile.

Protests From Cotton Growers

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 16.—(P)—With dollars at stake, outraged cotton belt farm groups are forming ranks to fight the federal clamp-down on cotton exports.

A committee formed here by the Midwest Cotton Growers heads for Washington tomorrow or Wednesday to demand that the order limiting cotton exports to 2,000,000 bales through March 31 be lifted.

The committee represents growers in Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Missouri and Louisiana. And reinforcements are expected from growers in Nevada, Arizona, California, Texas and New Mexico.

What set off the explosion? Money. Growers figure the export cutback makes cotton more plentiful here, drives the price down and takes dollars out of their pockets.

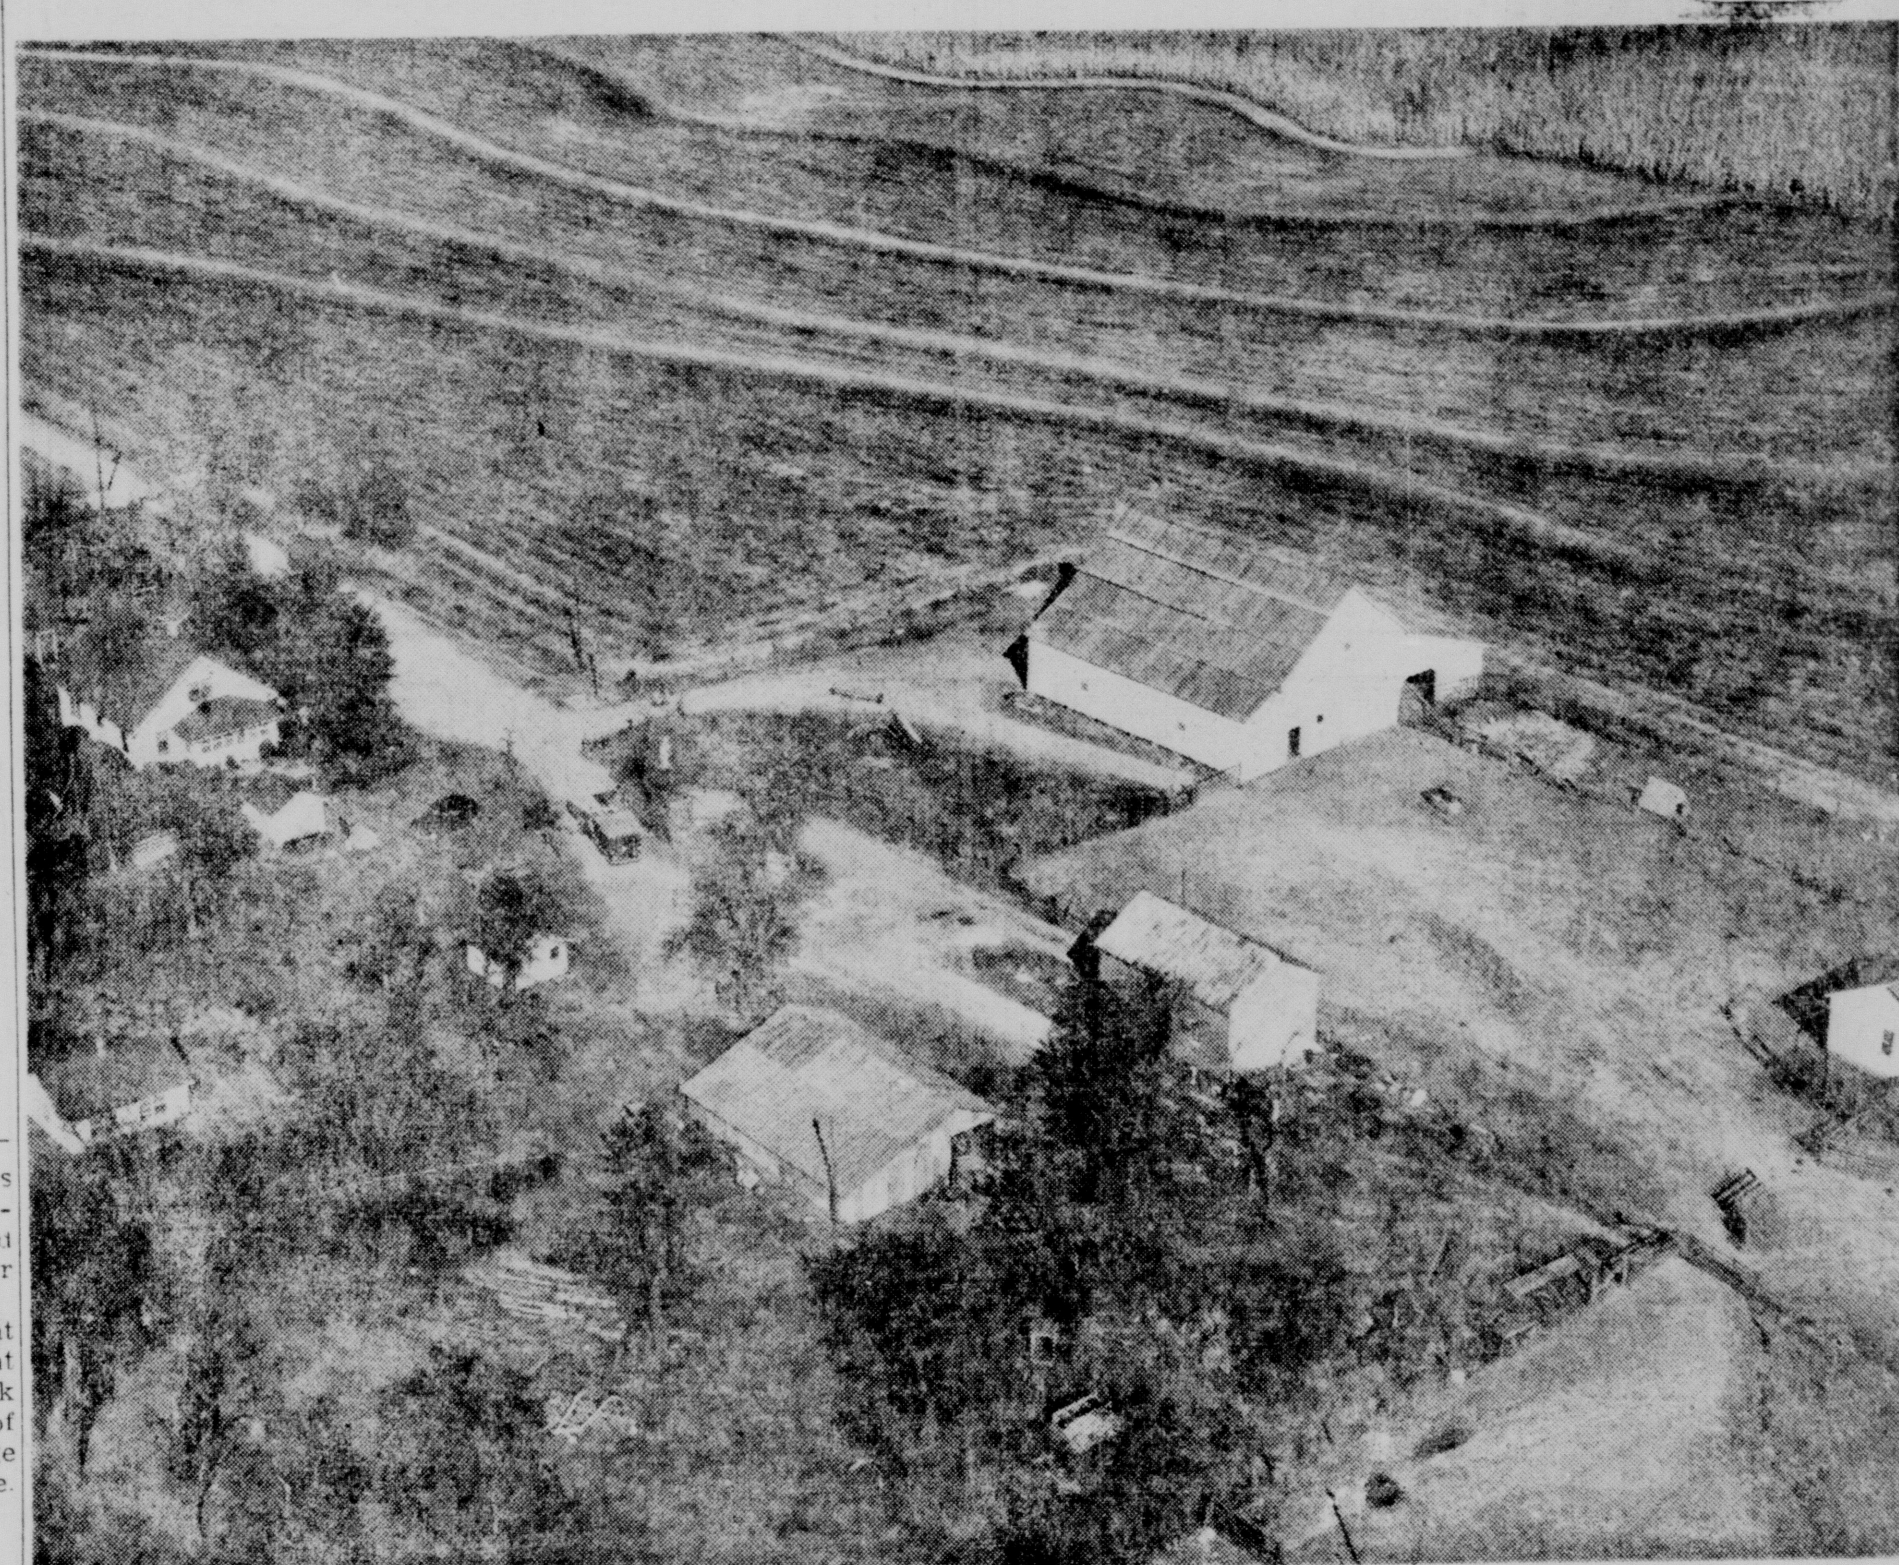

The agriculture department said the move was to safeguard the U. S. cotton supply and make sure enough was on hand to meet an emergency.

But the cotton growers protest meeting here yesterday charged the action was ordered by "higher ups" and was designed to help the consumer at the expense of the grower.

Hitch-Hikes 75,000 Miles

SINGAPORE.—(P)—A husky, 36 year old Swedish Scoutmaster is working his way home as a cabin boy on the freighter John Bakke, after hitch-hiking 75,000 miles through 43 countries. Borge Jonsson left his home in the little town of Koping three years ago with $600. It was stolen in Paris. Nevertheless, he went on hiking, paying his way by doing odd jobs and working his passage whenever he had to take a boat. From Eu-

Mystery Farm Pictures in Central Missouri---

Is this your farm?

Most of the readers of the Democrat-Capital have been following this series of weekly Mystery Farm Pictures with considerable interest.

The pictures that appear in this space in Monday's Democrat and Tuesday morning's Capital were taken sometime ago by an aerial photographer. The pictures were not shot with the knowledge of whose farm it was. It was a ransack picture there.

ropes he went to Africa, America, South America, Philippines, Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand. He plans to disembark at Genoa and then hitch-hike across Europe. He expects to be home by this Christmas.

dom job; a picture here and a picture there have been over sixty-two Mystery Farm Pictures published, most of which have been claimed by the occupants and owners of the various farms. Yours may be next. Watch for it!

If you see your farm in the Mystery Farm space, come in and claim your picture at the Democrat-Capital news room on the second floor of the Democrat-Capital building. No strings attached; it's yours for the asking.

The Mystery Farm picture that appeared in last week's Monday Democrat and Tuesday morning Capital was that of Walter Fincher. The farm is located about 16 miles northeast of Sedalia on county road J and consist of about one thousand acres.

The farm is operated by John Short, farm manager and Jerry Houlton, herd manager. The farm was government built and operated and had additional acreage.

There are six houses located on the farm proper and several others at convenient locations over the farm.

Oklahoma Appears Far Ahead in Class

Tigers to Meet Iowa State Next At Columbia

By Skipper Patrick
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—(P)—Just when it appeared Nebraska had replaced Missouri as chief threat to Oklahoma's monopoly of Big Seven football titles along come a couple of interesting developments.

Nebraska, with a tie and victory in two encounters with Big Ten members, was bumped by twice-beaten Colorado, 28-19, at Boulder Saturday.

The Kansas Jayhawks, loaded with sophomores, showed their best ground attack in years in beating Iowa State, 33-21, at Ames, Ia. If Kansas can muster a passing attack it will be hard to beat in the league.

Missouri won its first conference start, 28-7, over Kansas State at Manhattan, but looked no better than it did in shutout defeats by Clemson and S.M.U.

Oklahoma showed it was still far ahead in class by edging Texas, 14-13, at Dallas for its 24th consecutive victory.

The Sooners got a break to set up the tying touchdown late in the game and tackle Jim Weatherall booted the winning point.

The Sooners had the stuff when the chips were down as sophomore Billy Vessels came through with both Oklahoma touchdowns.

Oklahoma gets going in conference competition Saturday, taking on Kansas State at Norman in what should prove a light game for Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Missouri and Iowa State will meet in Columbia in a game that likely will mean the turning point for both teams. Iowa State, with the best passing attack in the league, would get back in the scramble with a victory.

Missouri needs to win and show vast improvement in doing it if the Tigers are to be contenders.

On the non-conference list, Kansas will meet Oklahoma A. and M., crushed 56-0 by S.M.U. at Lawrence; Nebraska will try to regain its prestige at the expense of Penn State in Lincoln, and Colorado will be host to Arizona.

Noted Golf Writer Dies

ATLANTA, Oct. 16.—(P)—O. B. "Pop" Keeler, who spent most of his life doing the things he wanted to do—writing about golf and making friends—is dead.

O. B. was 68 when he died yesterday morning in an Atlanta hospital from a liver ailment and a nerve condition.

"Pop" was retired by the Atlanta Journal last Sept. 15 after 42 years of newspapering for the Journal and the Kansas City Star.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon. To one generation of golf fans and fellow golf writers, O. B. was known best as the main historian of Bobby Jones' great sweep from minor sectional golf tournaments to Jones' unmatched grand slam in 1930.

U. S. Team Wins Weight Lifting

PARIS, Oct. 16.—(P)—Now it's Egypt's turn to go home and try to build up its weight lifting forces.

Last year, the Egyptians won the world title in a narrow squeak over the United States, the defending champion. Uncle Sam's quad returned home and pulled a couple of loose ends together, and that was it.

Today the United States had the 1950 world championships safely tucked away.

The three-day matches ended yesterday with the American team chalking up 18 points.

Egypt, which had been favored to repeat its 1949 victory at the Hague had 15 points. Then came Russia with 14, Iran with 5 and Great Britain with two.

U.S. team manager Robert Hoffman of York, Pa., said: "It was superior competitive spirit that enabled the Americans to beat the Russians. Our boys were

'Will Not be Back,' Says Eddie Dyer

Leaving Redbird Organization, Not A 1951 Candidate

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16—(P)—Eddie Dyer announced today that he will not be back as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals next year.

He is retiring from the Redbird organization after 28 years to return to Houston, Texas, as an oil and insurance man.

Dyer said in a statement: "Realizing that a precedent has been set with the St. Louis Cardinals whereby it is customary to change managers whenever the club has a disappointing year, I want to go on record that I am not a candidate for the job of managing the Cardinals in 1951."

Dyer read his statement at a press conference, in the presence of Fred Saigh, the club owner.

Saigh did not say who next year's manager would be.

Dyer took over as manager of the Cardinals in 1946, went on to a World Series victory that year. Then he piloted the Cardinals to second place for the next three years and in the season just ended the Redbirds dropped to fifth place.

Wild Rex is The Champion

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16—(P)—Beauchamp's Wild Rex, owned by Max Baty of Peoria, Ill., yesterday was judged the American Royal championship yearling.

The trim chestnut was the only entry by Baty.

More than 3,500 persons attended last night's show, after a crowd of 8,000 saw the afternoon program.

Last night's results included: Conformation hunters class, teams, combined ownership permitted—Symbion, Burton L. Lohmuller, Centralia, Kas.; Golden Wood, H. E. Marzano, Palos Park, Ill., and Lady Gordon, Si Jayne, River Grove, Ill., third; Eagle Scout, Joe Mackey, Jr., Overland Park, Kas.; Road to Road to Glory, Mrs. Jay Holmes, Overland Park and Great, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. W. H. G. Fuller, Ft. Leavenworth, Kas., fourth.

Championship Weanling Stake, fillies and colts, foals of 1950—Festivity, Faustiana Farms, Maryville, Mo., first; Stephen O'Dell, H. B. Lamer, Hays, Kas., fifth.

Today was Kansas day at the Royal.

Governor Frank Carlson was scheduled to attend the day's activities which began with judging of lambs, pigs and steers this morning. In the afternoon the grand champion steers is to be named.

Elusive Elopers Secure License

ELKTON, Md., Oct. 16—(P)—A 19-year-old Newark, N. J., girl, who left one man waiting at the altar, today got a license to marry another.

The elusive elopers, Bernice Kurdes and Roland Lauther, got the license from court clerk Ralph Crothers and disappeared again in this town filled with "marrying parsons."

The couple has been hiding out here since Bernice walked out Friday night on the eve of her announced wedding to Bob Wallman. Lauther went to the clerk's office alone to obtain the license for which they applied Saturday.

Bernice and her last-minute husband choice had worked together in a Newark brewery. Her father said he didn't know him.

Is Fined $25 on Careless Driving Charge

Elmer J. Bailey, 1326 East Broadway, arrested by the police for careless driving following an accident at Broadway and Massachusetts avenue, was fined $25.00 in police court, this morning by Judge Jerry Trotter. Bailey pleading not guilty, so a hearing was held.

Bailey's car figured in a minor car collision, when his car ran into the rear of another, doing slight damage. Police maintained Bailey was operating the vehicle with bad brakes.

Bond on Speeding Charge Forfeited

Lashley Loughridge, 1801 South Washington avenue, arrested by the police for driving a motor vehicle at excessive speed, failed to appear before Judge Jerry Trotter in police court this morning and his $10.00 cash bond was ordered forfeited.

Eight overtime parking violators failing to appear before Judge Trotter, this morning, had their cash bonds of one-dollar each forfeited on orders by the court.

Kills Navy 'Vet' During Fight

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16—(P)—While terrified passengers huddled in one end of a car, a rookie policeman shot and killed a 22-year-old Navy veteran during a fight on a subway train.

Samuel S. Ellis, Jr., died yesterday in Hahnemann hospital about an hour after he was shot by Edward Rouch, 23.

Detective Sgt. Samuel Ricciardi of the homicide squad said Rouch's first shot creased Ellis' left thigh and the second struck him in the lower abdomen, causing his death.

Witnesses told police Ellis attacked Rouch with a knife shortly after two companions left the subway. Police were seeking the two companions for questioning. They quoted witnesses as saying they and Ellis had been fighting and that one of the men was believed to have been stabbed by Ellis.

John J. Raskob Died on Sunday

CENTREVILLE, Md., Oct. 16—(P)—John J. Raskob, behind-the-scenes political figure of the '30s and a pioneer in the automobile installment-buying plan, died at his estate here yesterday. He was 71.

A requiem mass will be offered at 11 a. m. Wednesday if his wife, Mrs. Helena S. Raskob, arrives by that time from Arizona. If not, the mass probably will be delayed pending her arrival.

As a former chairman of the finance committee of General Motors, and Associate of the DuPonts of Wilmington, Raskob was one of the country's leading industrialists.

But he was most remembered for his political experiences. He dropped out of his business positions in 1928 to back Al Smith in his unsuccessful bid for the presidency.

Despite the setback, he remained a power in the Democratic party—and one of its chief contributors—until 1932, when factional breaks resulted in his assuming a more minor role.

Enlisted in Navy

Robert C. Dillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Dillard, 922 West Sixth street, has enlisted in the Navy and is now in training at the Great Lakes training station.

Door Found Unlocked

A door to the Beverly Snack Shop, Sixth street and Ohio avenue, was found unlocked early Sunday morning by the police. It was locked and the manager notified.

Doll Buggy Claimed

The doll buggy and teddy bear found and taken to police headquarters was claimed by Mrs. Robert Karnes, 700 West Sixth street, who identified both the buggy and doll to the police.

S. O. O. B. will meet in regular session on Tuesday, October 17th at 2 p. m. Reports of convention. Important business. Refreshments. Visitors welcome. All members urged to attend. Mrs. Wm. Monegan, President. Mrs. Frank Coffman, Recorder.

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of Missouri

To be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Missouri at the General Election to be held on Tuesday, the Seventh day of November, 1950.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE
(Submitted by General Assembly)

Repealing and reenacting Section 11, Article X, Missouri Constitution, and in addition providing school taxes may be increased not to exceed three times current levies in school districts the rate of taxation as herein limited may be increased for school purposes so that the total levy shall not exceed three times the limit herein specified and not to exceed one year, when the rate period of levy and the purpose of the increase are submitted to a vote and a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon shall vote therefor; provided in school districts in cities of 75,000 inhabitants or over the rate of taxation as herein limited may be increased for school purposes so that the total levy shall not exceed three times the limit herein specified and not to exceed two years, when the rate period of levy and the purpose of the increase are submitted to a vote and a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon shall vote therefor; provided that the rates herein fixed, and the amounts by which they may be increased, may be further limited by law; and provided further, that any county or other political subdivision, when authorized by law and within the limits fixed by law, may levy a rate of taxation on all property subject to its taxing powers in excess of the rates herein limited, for library, hospital, public health, recreation grounds and museum purposes.

The City of St. Louis may levy for county purposes, in addition to the municipal rates herein provided, a rate not exceeding the rate allowed for county purposes.

The foregoing limitations on rates shall not apply to taxes levied for the purpose of paying any bonded debt.

Nothing in this Constitution shall prevent the enactment of any general law permitting any county or other political subdivision to levy taxes other than ad valorem taxes for its essential purposes.

For all other school districts—sixty-five cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation.

For all municipalities, counties and school districts the rates of taxation as herein limited may be increased for the purpose of paying any bonded debt not to exceed four years, when the rate and purpose of the increase are submitted to a vote and two-thirds of the qualified electors voting thereon shall vote therefor; provided in school districts in cities of 75,000 inhabitants or over the rate of taxation as herein limited may be increased for school purposes so that the total levy shall not exceed three times the limit herein specified and not to exceed one year, when the rate period of levy and the purpose of the increase are submitted to a vote and a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon shall vote therefor; provided in school districts in cities of 75,000 inhabitants or over the rate of taxation as herein limited may be increased for school purposes so that the total levy shall not exceed three times the limit herein specified and not to exceed two years, when the rate period of levy and the purpose of the increase are submitted to a vote and a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon shall vote therefor; provided that the rates herein fixed, and the amounts by which they may be increased, may be further limited by law; and provided further, that any county or other political subdivision, when authorized by law and within the limits fixed by law, may levy a rate of taxation on all property subject to its taxing powers in excess of the rates herein limited, for library, hospital, public health, recreation grounds and museum purposes.

Some Doctors Required to Register Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—(AP)—Today is the day when some—but only some—of the country's doctors had to register with their draft boards.

Who had to register today? All physicians, dentists and veterinarians who:

1. Are under 50 and—
2. Who got some or all of their training at government expense or were deferred as students in World War II and—this is important—served on active duty less than 21 months with the armed forces.

Other physicians, dentists, veterinarians and medical specialists will have to register—if they are under 51—sometime before Jan. 16. But dates for them have not been announced.

(Medical men who are members of a military reserve outfit don't have to register. But, if they leave the reserve, they will have to register within 30 days after leaving.)

There has been some confusion about an executive order issued last Thursday on the registration of medical men.

That order spoke of "persons in medical, dental and allied specialist categories." Who's in the "allied specialist" category? Men like these: Pharmacists, optometrists, osteopaths, x-ray technicians, etc.

Some people got the impression that these "allied specialists" would have to register today.

Selective service headquarters says "No," that only those covered above in this story had to register today.

But, as mentioned, sometime between today and Jan. 16 all these medical men—physicians, dentists, veterinarians and the allied specialists—will have to Mo., and points of interest in the White River Country and Arkansas. Mr. Piper is a machinist.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ehlers spent the past week visiting in Jefferson City. Mr. Ehlers is a coach carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bullard of near Ashland, Mo., were visitors in Sedalia the past week visiting Sardis Glasscock, who was a patient in the Bothwell hospital.

Frank Hausner, retired sheet metal worker, who has been a patient in the Bothwell hospital, has returned home considerably improved, although not able to be out of the house.

register if they're under 50 years of age.

Order For Drafting

The defense department has called for the drafting of 1,522 physicians, dentists and veterinarians during November, December, January.

Those drafted will be drafted for 21 months' service. Who'll be called first? Here is the priority—or order—for drafting:

1. Those who were in wartime army and naval medical, dental and veterinarian training programs and those who were deferred because of medical and allied studies and who have not served at least 90 days in the armed forces.

2. Those who were in that No. 1 group above but who served between 90 days and 21 months on active duty in the army, air force, navy, marine corps, coast guard or public health service.

3. Doctors, dentists and veterinarians who had no active service with any of the services after Sept. 16, 1940.

4. Those not included in the above three groups but who have had active service in the armed forces since Sept. 16, 1940.

But won't some of these people be deferred or exempted? Yes. Reasons and exceptions are as follows:

- 4-E—Conscientious objectors whose consciences will not permit them to perform any duties whatever in the armed services.

- 1-D—Members of reserve units of the armed forces.

- 2-A—Persons whose services in the community are necessary to maintenance of national health, safety or interest, and who cannot be replaced in the community.

- 3-A—Persons whose inductions into the armed forces would result in extreme hardship and privation to a wife, child or parent.

- 4-A—The sole surviving son of a family of which other sons or daughters died in line of duty while serving in the armed forces or of injuries or disease resulting from such service.

4-F—Persons physically, mentally or morally unfit for military service.

5-A—Persons 51 or older, except those on active military duty and in class 1-C.

1-C—Persons on active duty in the armed forces, or who entered active duty after the date fixed for registration and were later discharged honorably or honorably released from service.

Law-Navy-Church Is Woman's Career

REGINA, Sask.—(AP)—Miss Alison Andrews with equal ease can preach a sermon, give a snappy naval salute or draw up a neat legal document. She has come to Regina to serve as assistant to Rev. Ray Hord, United Church minister in the growing Lakeview community.

Miss Andrews, born in Pictou, N. S., started as secretary in a law office in Halifax, she later joined the Navy and was overseas for 18 months.

She was graduated from the United Church training school for women workers in Toronto and for a year served as acting minister at Porcupine Plain, Sask., and also at Smeaton, Sask.

Philip Morris Sales Booming

Due to the tremendous increase in Philip Morris, the Board of Directors of Philip Morris & Co. has announced plans for an $11,000,000 plant expansion program of its existing production facilities. The principal part of this money will be spent in Louisville which will result in Philip Morris becoming the largest producer of cigarettes in Louisville.

In an interview with O. G. Zemann, section sales manager, he stated Philip Morris' July, 1950 increase was over 30 per cent and that this increase was due to the many cigarette smokers changing from other brands to Philip Morris, which are advertised in the Democrat-Capital.

PHILIP MORRIS challenges any other leading brand to suggest this test!

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF SMOKERS, who tried this test, report in signed statements that PHILIP MORRIS IS DEFINITELY LESS IRRITATING, DEFINITELY Milder!

1 ... Light up a PHILIP MORRIS Just take a puff—DON'T INHALE—and s-l-o-w-l-y let the smoke come through your nose. Easy, isn't it? And NOW ...

2 ... Light up your present brand Do exactly the same thing—DON'T INHALE. Notice that bite, that sting? Quite a difference from PHILIP MORRIS!

Other brands merely make claims—but PHILIP MORRIS invites you to compare, to judge, to decide for yourself.

Try this simple test. We believe that you, too, will agree ... PHILIP MORRIS is, indeed, America's FINEST Cigarette!
